FLEETING PROSPERITY IS FOOL'S PARADISE

PROTECTION, OUR BULWARK

Forget Not the Dire Conditions Which Depressed This Country Under the Democratic Free Trade Tariff Prior to the War—They Will Return to Plague and Hunger You Unless the Republicans Are Restored to Power.

"When we contemplate universal and commercial conditions," says Mr. Hughes, "we see that we are back to a fool's paradise. This is the reason why the administration and its supporters have so constantly closed their eyes. When the world goes over Europe this country has been entering the most serious depression it has known since 1907 when the Progressive party had its influence over a full control of the United States."

Secretary Daniels says this is no time for politics. And it's no time for Scarecrow Annual edition.

Secretary Lewis, according to those about him, too proud to admit his personal infatuation that it was due, before the ignorance of his nation, to the popular interpretation they have put upon it as evolved, and, if anything, it didn't mean what it was intended to mean. The living states cannot be taken with some degree of confidence, as it is quite a well-known fact that most of the things the Progressives say do not mean what they are supposed to mean.

Secretary Redfield has presented another of those living illustrations of the old adage that "fools rush in where angels fear to tread," with one important modification.

The difference in the Secretary's case is that he worked right in and turned around and was kicked right out again.

The Democratic contingent in the Senate is all worked up over the fact that the terms of the treaty for the purchase of the Danish West Indies "leaked out." "Pitiless publicity," you understand, has been consigned to the scrap heap with a large assortment of various other Democratic policies and promises.

Of Mr. Wilson it may be said he meant well, but he now finds himself buried under the evidence of inefficiency that Mr. Hughes has brought forth.

Mr. Wilson has made no reply to the charges of Mr. Hughes. Is he still too proud to fight?

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE RIGHTS OF AMERICAN CITIZENS DO NOT STOP AT THE COAST LINE.

"When I say that I am an American citizen, I ought to say the proudest thing that any man can say in this world. But you can't have that pride if American citizenship is a cheap thing, if it is not worthy of protection this wide world over. There is no man who could successfully present to an American community the platform that an American citizen's rights stop at the coast line and that beyond that American life is to be the prey of any man who chooses to take it." From a speech of Mr. Hughes in the West.

TELL HOW WOMEN VOTERS WILL CONTROL POLITICS

Congressional Union Leaders Explain the Movement in Opposition to President Wilson.

Just how the decision of the women's party to oppose President Wilson's re-election is expected to change the national political situation was explained in a statement by suffrage leaders at the headquarters of the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage at Washington.

It was pointed out that unless he wins the West the defeat of Mr. Wilson seems inevitable.
